WHAT OF "OOM PAUL"?

Englishmen Speculating on the Fate of President Kruger.

BOES SAID TO BE LEAVING NATAL.

General Buller Reports Some of the Difficulties His Men Have Encountered in Attempting to Drive Out Burglers.

London, May 30.—As Lord Roberts has heretofore always fulfilled his predictions, it is taken for granted here that the British marched into Johannesburg at noon. Indeed, reports are current that telegrams have already been received announcing that fact, and the serious part of the campaign from the military point of view is regarded as over. Any prolonged defense of Pretoria is considered highly improbable, and many military men anticipate that General French will capture the Transvaal capital within a day or two by a sudden and unexpected move.

Public interest largely centers in President Kruger, his capture or escape. The occupation of Pretoria would be largely robbed of its value, in the estimation of the British, if Oom Paul were still at large and able to keep alive the dying embers of war.

A Pretoria dispatch says the situation at Johannesburg shows, as reported by Lord Roberts, that order is maintained from the Gold Reef city. The report that the British were driven back evidently refers to the prolonged fighting of General French westward of Johannesburg. But, apparently, the British were not seriously checked, as Lord Roberts does not mention it in his dispatch 24 hours later.

A dispatch from Mafeking, dated Friday, May 25, reports that General Snyman, the Boer commander, has left his force and arrived at his farm with a shrapnel bullet in his foot.

The Boer laager at Rooigrad, it is added, has retired further into the Transvaal, and Mafeking is rapidly resuming its normal state. Major General Baden-Powell, on the queen's birthday, gave a dinner to the officers of the relief columns.

During the course of a speech proposing the queen's health, the defender of Mafeking remarked that he was so elated by the recent occurrences that he felt that he could "drink the health of Paul Kruger himself, coupled with that of Cecil Rhodes, adding: "Because Kruger has been the cause of the present great outburst of imperial feeling and Rhodes was the red flag to the bull which drew him on."

War News From Pretoria.

Pretoria, May 30.—An official war bulletin just issued is as follows: "On Sunday a fight occurred close to Van Wyksrust in Gatsrand. The Federals fought well and the British troops seemed tired out. At dark the Federals were forced to retire in the direction of Van Wyksrust on account of the overwhelming force of the British. The British attacked Witwatersrand Monday, and were in contact with the Federals at Gatsrand, but they were beaten back with good results by the Federals under Commandant Louis Botha. The Federals were heavily bombarded all day long, but kept their positions. The British loss is reported to be considerable. The British are near Utrecht, and they are also marching on Laings Nek."

Message From Buller.

London, May 30.—The following dispatch has been received at the war office from General Buller, dated Newcastle, May 30: "The enemy having formed a laager east of the town of Dornberg, pressed my right rear annoyingly. On May 27 I directed a force under Hildyard, by Woolsdrift and Utrecht, and another under Lytleton by Schangdrift on Dornberg. These movements have caused the enemy at Dornberg to retire north. Hildyard is at Utrecht and the town has surrendered. Clery is bombarding Laings Nek. The enemy are much disheartened, and were they not in such very strong positions I doubt if they would show fight. The railway was opened to Newcastle on May 28."

Excitement at Johannesburg.

Pretoria, May 30.—A dispatch sent from Johannesburg describes the town as intensely excited throughout the day on reports that the British were approaching, but says the excitement subsided in the evening, owing to the rumors that the British had been driven back. There are large numbers of burghers at Johannesburg, but remarkable order prevails there.

Neely's Property Seized.

Muncie, Ind., May 30.—The Neely Printing company, which was established by Charles W. Neely of the Cuban postal service, now under arrest on charges of extensive embezzlement, was closed by United States Marshal Foley of Indianapolis. The closing of the establishment throws 50 men out of employment. It is alleged that Neely recently disposed of the property to Thomas Campbell of Zanesville, O., and General Manager R. H. Cowan, in order to prevent confiscation by the government. Mr. Campbell says, however, that Neely has a half interest in the establishment. The matter will be settled in the federal court.

MUD VOLCANOES.

Natural Wonders of California Are in Active Operation.

Laytonville, Cal., May 30.—The mud volcanoes situated in this vicinity have burst into alarming activity. The first intimation the inhabitants had of the phenomenon was when an immense cloud of vapor issued from the mouth of the craters accompanied by a gun-like far away thunder. The disturbance is so violent that great redwood trees are swayed when the mud and vapor shoots high over the rims of the craters and flows down the hillside like a lava stream into one of the tributaries of the Eell river.

The murky craters are filled with a bluish mud of about the consistency of boiling tar, but the mud is icy cold. The roar of the volcanoes can be heard for miles around. They are situated 20 miles from the ocean, and consist of a number of mounds about 6 feet high.

Police Charge on Mob.

St. Louis, May 30.—About noon a mob gathered at Broadway and Miller street, where Tuesday's riot took place and built bonfires on the streetcar tracks. When the cars stopped the nonunion employees and policemen on board were hooted and jeered. Forty mounted police charged the crowd and dispersed it. The police used the broad sides of their sabres on the heads of those with whom they came in contact. A number were injured, but none seriously. The obstructions were removed and the cars proceeded. President Hawes of the police commissioners, announced that he will authorize Sheriff Pohlmann to summon 1,000 men to help the police department keep order and prevent the destruction of street railway property.

Sergeant Brickley Killed.

Manilla, May 30.—Lieutenant General E. Stedje of company L, Forty-seventh volunteers, commanding a scouting party in the southern part of Albay province, had several engagements with the insurgents, in which 17 of the enemy were killed and 23, including a captain, were captured. Six explosive bombs and a number of valuable insurgent documents also fell into the hands of the Americans. The scouts burned the town of Yubi, the headquarters of the insurgents. Sergeant Brickley was killed during a slight engagement near Hlago, province of Albay.

Favors Hearst.

Atlanta, May 30.—The Evening Journal in its leading editorial says: "For second place on the presidential ticket that will be named at Kansas City, The Journal wishes to present the name of William Randolph Hearst of New York. Mr. Hearst is a firm Democrat and has so strongly stamped his individuality on the community in which he now lives that we believe he would greatly aid the ticket. We think he could carry the state of New York."

A Slim Attendance.

Birmingham, Ala., May 30.—Only 30 persons were present when the Populist state convention met here to nominate a state ticket and frame a platform. The meeting organized with N. B. Speers of St. Clair county as chairman and adjourned. The leaders are greatly discouraged over the slim attendance, and it is rumored that no ticket will be put out.

Quiet at St. Louis.

St. Louis, May 30.—The rioting Tuesday among the streetcar strikers was followed by a calm. No fatalities have resulted among the 11 persons shot in Tuesday's riots. R. H. Stilson of Chicago, the motorman who was shot through the spine, is in a critical condition. His wife has been telegraphed for. Cars are running on 16 of the Transit company's lines.

Mackinaw City, Mich., May 30.—In a dense fog the steel steamer Seguin, bound down light, ran ashore half a mile west of McGulpin's Point. She is a Canadian craft, valued at $80,000. The fog is so dense that captains can not see half the length of their craft.

Deny the New York Story.

London, May 30.—The officials of the British war office deny in unqualified terms the statement cabled to a New York newspaper that the war office here had asked Lord Roberts if he believed he could land 100,000 of his troops in England before Oct. 1.

DEAD OF BOTH SIDES.

Monument Dedicated to the Men Who Wore the Blue and Gray.

MEMORIAL SERVICES ON ANTIETAM.

At Chicago the Graves of the Confederate and Federal Dead Are Decorated Respectively by Former Foes.

Hagerstown, Md., May 30.—Another link in the chain which binds together the once warring factions of the north and south was forged by the dedication of a monument erected to the memory of the men who wore the gray as well as those who wore the blue, and who died in mortal combat on the bloody field of Antietam. The event, which is probably without a parallel in the history of the world, was graced by the presence of the president of the United States, accompanied by many members of his cabinet, a score or more of United States senators, thrice as many members of congress, the governor of Maryland and prominent men from all parts of the country.

There were also present hundreds of veterans who fought for the "lost cause," and thousands who fought for the side that proved victorious.

Side by side, shoulder to shoulder, they stood with uncovered heads throughout the ceremony, which marked the conveyance of the monument from the state of Maryland to the national government.

The train which brought the president and party from Washington reached the battlefield at noon, where they were welcomed by Governor John Walter Smith of Maryland and staff, several posts of the Grand Army, together with members of Herbert camp of Confederate veterans. Besides these organized bodies there were scores of Confederate veterans who had taken part in the various battles of the civil war. These were drawn up in line to greet the president, who, together with Governor Smith, watched them as they passed in review.

The dedicatory ceremonies were opened by Colonel Benjamin E. Taylor, who introduced General Henry Kyd Douglass, director of ceremonies. Prayer was offered by the Rev. B. F. Clarkson, who was followed by Governor John Walter Smith in an address of welcome. Colonel Taylor, as president of the Antietam battlefield committee of Maryland, then presented the monument to the national government, and the Hon. Elihu Root, secretary of war, in a brief address accepted it on behalf of the United States. Then followed short addresses, mainly of a reminiscent character by Generals John B. Brooke, James Longstreth, Orlando B. Wilcox, J. E. Duryee, Senators Foraker, Burrows, Daniels and others, who were prominent on the opposing sides in the great struggle. These were followed in turn by the Hon. George B. McClellan of New York and other members of the United States senate and house of representatives. This concluded, the band played "Hail to the Chief," and General Douglass introduced President McKinley, who delivered the address of the day.

Memorial Exercises at Capital.

Washington, May 30.—Business was suspended in the national capitol, while thousands of citizens, veterans of three wars and their descendants, paid tribute to the nation's heroic dead. Washington is encircled by cemeteries, each the resting place of departed soldiers—Glenwood, Oakhill, Holyrood, St. Elizabeth, Brightwood, Soldiers' Home, the Congressional cemetery, with its scores of soldiers' graves, and Arlington, where thousands upon thousands have their resting places. In each of these cemeteries memorial services were held and orations delivered by some of the most notable orators, whose duties call them each session to the national capital.

Foemen Turned to Friends.

Chicago, May 30.—Confederate veterans held a service at their monument in the Confederate plot at Oakwood. They first marched through the Grand Army plot, and as they passed through the lines of federal veterans laid their tributes of peace on the graves of their former enemies. The fraternal call was repaid later by Dewey Grand Army post, the members of which strewed flowers on the lawn under which are buried the Confederates, who died while prisoners at Camp Douglass during the war.

In Far Manilla.

Manilla, May 30.—Memorial day was observed here as a general holiday. Military ceremonies were held at the various stations and salutes were fired.

from the forts at Santiago and Manila. A military escort proceeded to the Malate cemetery, where the graves of United States soldiers were decorated.

OPENING OF REUNION.

Confederate Veterans Renew Acquaintances in City of Louisville.

Louisville, May 30.—Throughout the early part of the morning the rain came down in torrents, and the prospect for the comfortable opening of the reunion of the United Confederate Veterans was not bright. By 10 o'clock, however, the rain had ceased, the sun came out, and there was every promise of a fine day, at least during the hours the convention was to sit.

Special trains laden with delegates to the reunion kept arriving. The estimate of the reunion committee that the number of strangers within the gates of Louisville is in the neighborhood of 50,000 is not far wrong.

Major General Poyntz, commanding the Kentucky division of the Confederate Veterans, called the meeting to order at noon. After the doxology had been sung by the assembly, Rev. J. William Jones, chaplain-in-chief, made a short prayer, and then General Poyntz introduced Mayor Weaver of Louisville, who, in a happy speech, welcomed the visitors to the city. Then came a series of short welcoming addresses and responses.

After the rendering of a few melodies by the members of the Confederate Glee club, Colonel Bennett H. Young of this city, chairman of the reunion committee, presented the building to the veterans in an eloquent speech. He told of the services which Kentucky had rendered to the Confederacy during the days of the war, and how she guarded the ashes of 10,000 Confederate soldiers who lie buried within the state.

After the Glee club had rendered several selections General John B. Gordon, commander of the United Confederate Veterans, rose to respond to the address of Colonel Young. General Gordon was received with enthusiastic cheers.

Rev. B. M. Palmer of New Orleans made an eloquent address. He said in answer to the inquiry, "Why stir the ashes of the ancient feud of the rebellion?" that it was the history of our dead heroes. He attributed the cause of the war to the contest between state's rights and federal supremacy.

Golden Jubilees.

Washington, May 30.—It is learned at the papal legation that the golden jubilee or fiftieth anniversary of the foundation of Nesqueally, Washington, as an episcopal see, which occurs May 31, serves as the initiative to no less than seven similar events, which will soon be observed in various parts of the country. On July 19 the four archbishops of New York, Cincinnati, New Orleans and Santa Fe found their first half century, while the same day marks the semi-centennial of three suffragan bishoprics, Wheeling, Savannah and Los Angeles, all of which were founded coincidentally by the last pope, Pius IX. Archbishop Martinelli has been invited already to several celebrations, but by reason of his duties at other points he may be unable to attend them.

One Republic Wiped Out.

Bloomfontein, May 30.—Amid salutes and cheers and the singing of "God Save the Queen," the military governor, Major General George Pretymann, at noon formally proclaimed the annexation of the Free State under the designation of the Orange River colony. The ceremony was somewhat imposing and the scene in the market square inspiring. An immense concourse had gathered, and the town was gay with bunting. The balconies and windows surrounding the square were crowded with ladies, among them Lady Roberts and the Misses Roberts, the Countess of Airlie and Ladies Henry Bentick and Settrington. The troops were drawn up under command of General Knox and entertained the spectators.

Police Called.

Cleveland, May 30.—The police were called to quell what threatened to be a serious riot at the Democratic county convention here, as the result of a fight between the "kids" and "goats" factions of the party, when the kids secured possession of the convention hall, and locked the doors against the "goats." The latter gathered in strong force and were just forcing an entrance when a patrol wagon loaded with police dashed up in response to a riot call. About 60 "goats" had gained entrance to the hall, and had not police arrived on the scene at the same moment there would undoubtedly been many broken heads. Several men were knocked down and badly bruised.

Washington, May 30.—The 190 pension bills were passed and the house then, at 2:10 p. m., adjourned.

A VICTIM OF PLAGUE.

Dr. Kellogg Ascribes Death of a Chinaman to Dread Disease.

THE QUARANTINE OF CHINATOWN.

That Portion of San Francisco Which Is Occupied by the Celestials, Is Vigorously Guarded by Many Policemen.

San Francisco, May 30.—Dr. Kellogg, who has been investigating the corpse of a Chinaman found in a Chinese undertaking establishment, expressed an opinion that the Chinaman had died of the plague.

"I am satisfied it is plague," he said, "and I am confident that animal inoculation and the autopsy will confirm it. One not conversant with the situation in Chinatown can not appreciate the difficulties that confront the inspectors, but they may be imagined from the fact that we have only discovered the case after the victim is dead."

The quarantine of Chinatown is being rigorously enforced, 150 policemen being detailed to maintain a cordon around the district bounded by California, Kearney, Montgomery avenue, Broadway and Stockton street. The parts of blocks fronting on California and Kearney streets are not included, as they are occupied by whites. Ropes are stretched across the streets, and Chinese are closely hemmed in, even the secret exits through some blocks being closed against them.

The Asiatics took the quarantine stoically. They had warning of what was coming and many left the district before the arrival of the police. The proportion of those who fled was small, however, and there are thousands behind the lines.

All whites in Chinatown were allowed to pass out, but people outside the lines are not let inside. Many teamsters are caught in the quarantine, but get out without difficulty on being warned that they could not re-enter. Policemen have stopped freight of all kinds from coming out, but have let the Chinese understand that supplies for themselves might pass in. The Chinese watch for newspapers with eagerness.

The Sacramento and Clay street cable cars are permitted to pass through the quarantined district only on condition that the passengers go inside the cars before entering the lines, and no person is allowed to get on or off the cars in Chinatown. Another condition is observed by the railway men in fumigating the cars at both ends of the line.

Health Officer O'Brien states that careful house-to-house inspection will be begun in Chinatown at once, and that the inspectors will after receiving sanction of the board of health, force their way into the houses if necessary.

Hanna Denies It.

Washington, May 30.—Senator Hanna denies the report that he has determined not to be the chairman of the new national Republican committee. A story to this effect was sent out from Washington, in which it was stated that ill health and business duties were responsible for the senator's determination to retire, notwithstanding the fact that President McKinley earnestly desired him to continue at the head of the committee. When this story was called to Senator Hanna's attention he authorized the following statement: "The story was entirely unauthorized. There has been no change in the situation, and nothing has been decided as to the future."

Destroyed by Fire.

Ploch, Nev., May 30.—A fire originating in an old stockade destroyed a large portion of this town. Among the buildings burned were the Schaffer Grand Opera House, the Episcopal church and the school house. Giant powder was used to stay the progress of the flames. Loss, $60,000; insurance, $10,000.

Fresh Atrocities.

Pekin, May 30.—From all parts of the surrounding country news is constantly arriving of fresh atrocities committed by the "Boxers." Three Christian families were massacred at Shan T'ai Ying, 60 miles from Peking, Friday, May 25. Only two escaped. Fang Tai is occupied by a battalion of troops.

Men Landed at Taku.

Shanghai, May 30.—The British warships Orlando and Algerine are landing 100 men at Taku, where the French, Russian and Japanese guards have already disembarked. The "Boxers" are apparently without arms, except those they have obtained from the soldiery, many of whom are openly joining the rebels.

MR. TAYLOR evidently doesn't like the suggestion of certain Republicans that he take "something just as good as the Governorship." He seems to be on to their scheme to get him out of the way.

PITTSBURG, May 30.—All the branch houses of the National Tube Company in the country will be closed on June 1, and the managers and employees discharged.

Thus will another trust get in its work of adding to the list of unemployed.

A SPECIAL from Martinsville, Ind., where Mr. Taylor is stopping at a sanitarium says the visits of friends from Louisville and "the large mail from Kentucky have disturbed him and deprived him of needed rest." He has evidently caught on to the scheme of his party leaders to get him out of the way by giving him "something just as good as the Governorship." They know they dare not enter the race again with such a man as Taylor as their nominee.

ALL the leading witnesses against the Goebel suspects are Republicans. They are Taylor's Private Secretary, his Assistant Secretary of State and Culton, Golden and others. This moves the Indianapolis Sentinel to say:

The claim that the witnesses that have confessed the complicity of Finley in the Goebel assassination were hired to do so is a fine comment on the class of men chosen to guard the Executive offices. A precious lot of rascals it would be that would swear away the lives of their friends for money.

A Life and Death Fight.

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50c. and $1. TAYLOR'S TEARS.

The Onus of Goebel's Assassination Cannot Be Shifted to Yontsey, Culton and Others.

[J. M. Thomas in Winchester Democrat.]
 Why did Taylor cry? He was not that subdued sort of a man when surrounded by his army of armed mountaineers and military. He was conspiring to destroy his foes and assert despotism. Were his tears shed in penitence for the murder of Goebel? He did not pull the trigger, but the most dispassionate men at Frankfort in the dark days of terror well understood that this crime centered in Taylor.

He cried as the criminal cries when sympathy is extended to him in cell or on the scaffold.

He was surprised into tears that the Republican party endorsed him.

Mr. Bradley cannot denounce the assassination of Goebel and endorse Taylor. It is in evidence Taylor pardoned beforehand men sent him to do the murder. He pardoned after men connected with the deed; it was openly understood that no one was to be punished who would commit the assassination; the act was done almost from Taylor's office; the doors were closed against the officers; the administration building fortified; the General Assembly shut out by bayonets from their halls and prevented from assembling by Taylor's Adjutant General, Collier; the capital of the State made a military camp and put under martial law by a false proclamation of Taylor that a state of insurrection existed. Taylor, with armed guards at his house, about the capital grounds, and about his person, guarded by a platoon when he went from his house to his office, this man is endorsed by the Republican convention!

The onus cannot be shifted from Taylor onto Yontsey, Culton, etc., hot headed young fellows who were but instruments in the hands of arch plotters.

Taylor endorsed Goebel's murderers can't be denounced. Better have it out, Bradley! You must carry Taylor, the party must carry him. He is endorsed; you have made him the issue, now abide it. Don't go back on the poor young fellows whom party loyalty have made criminals. They are less criminal than Taylor or than Taylor's advisors.

I was intimate with Goebel; he had it view to modify the election law. The issue for which he was assassinated was not the Goebel law, but the right of contest, a right older than Mr. Goebel.

All the courts have now conceded this right. The issue is not the Goebel law, but whether government shall be by peaceful, legal method, or whether it shall be by assassination, military and base intimidation. The two parties are before the people for judgment. The Republicans endorse Taylor, his acts and administration. Can it be that the people of Kentucky join in this endorsement?

THE MCMURDY ESTATE

Will Receive a Large Portion of the $5,000,000 to be Paid on the Delagoa Claim.

The Geneva Arbitration Tribunal settled amount of indemnity to be paid the American and English interests in the matter of the seizure by Portugal, ten years ago, of the Delagoa railroad.

The aggregate amount of the award is $5,000,000.

A large part of this will go to the McMurdy estate, Colonel Edward McMurdy having been the original concessionaire, and he having let the English into the contract.

Col. McMurdy's widow is the wife of Hon. Frederic C. Penfield, of Hartford, Conn., who was Consul General at Cairo, Egypt, during President Cleveland's second administration.

The BULLETIN has made mention of this case before; and Colonel McMurdy will be remembered by many in this country who knew him when his father, Rev. Robert McMurdy, taught school at Washington. We believe there is only one of the family now living, Mrs. Agnes McMurphy, of Chillicothe, O. They were all people of great and varied attainments.

Fancy Silks at Greatly Reduced Prices

This has been the largest silk season in the history of our store. We anticipated a great demand for silks and bought extensively. Of the former immense stock we have still left about forty patterns in waist lengths of exquisite fancy silks. We think it wise to dispose of these while the weather is still fit for silk wearing, and if price and your good judgment count for what we think they will, not a one of these silks will be carried over until next season. The $1.50 kind is now $1. The $1 grade is reduced to 75c. and so on down the list. It's a great silk opportunity. Don't miss it.

The Proper Things in Underwear.

We value our good reputation as handlers of proper underwear for men, women and children and our present large and varied stock will more than maintain it. Splendid taped neck Vests, 5c. Neck and arm holes taped, three for 25c. Lisle Vests, silk taped, 15c., 25c. and 50c. Splendid qualities of men's Balbriggan Underwear, 25c. and 50c. We carry a complete line of infants' and children's underwear from 10c. to 50c., guaranteed.

A Word or Two About Gloves.

Our one dollar guaranteed kid glove sells so rapidly that we seldom feel a need to advertise it. It is the famous F. W. L. Glove and improves with each season's output. In the undressed kid the Dupray at $1.50 and in the dressed kid the La Rome at the same price are masterpieces of the glove makers' art. Both guaranteed.

MEMORIAL DAY.

Graves of the Heroes Strewn With Flowers—Services Attended by a Large Crowd—The Address.

Decoration Day dawned cloudy and showery and for a time it looked like the memorial services at Maysville's beautiful "City of the Dead" would have to be abandoned. At noon, however, the clouds cleared away and large crowds took advantage of the bright afternoon and thronged the cemetery, and the air was soon redolent with the perfume of the profusion of flowers strewn upon the graves of the fallen heroes of the Civil war and other loved ones who are sleeping their eternal sleep 'neath the green mounds.

The surviving veterans of Jos. Heiser Post marched from their quarters in the Cox Building to the cemetery, led by the Rudy Drum Corps and the Mason County Guards. The speaker of the day Hon. G. A. Cassidy, of Flemingsburg, accompanied by Captain Jacob Miller, Captain Thomas A. Davis and Comrade Thomas M. Luman followed in a carriage.

Surrounding the beautiful soldiers' monument, the formal exercises of the day were held, closing with a salute of three volleys fired by the Mason County Guards.

The crowd then adjourned to Dieterich's Grove, where the address of the day was delivered by Mr. Cassidy. Here the exercises were opened with singing, "Nearer, My God, to Thee," prayer by Rev. F. W. Harrop and then, "My Country, 'Tis of Thee" was sung. Captain Davis introduced the speaker. Mr. Cassidy spoke for some time, paying eloquent tribute to the fallen heroes. The exercises closed with a short prayer and the benediction by Rev. J. O. A. Vaught.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Carville, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 60 cents. Sold by J. J. Wood & Son, druggists. Guaranteed.

WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN.

What the Weather Bureau Says of Outlook in Kentucky—Tobacco Setting Order of the Day.

The temperature averaged slightly above the normal. On the 24th showers were quite general over the State, but very irregular in amount; the greatest total for the week was 0.75 of an inch at Greensburg, with Lexington second in amount at 0.74 of an inch, while Bardonia reports only a trace. In localities receiving sufficient rains all crops have improved rapidly and are really in excellent condition, but other portions of the State visited only by light showers are suffering slightly from drouth.

The wheat crop has been severely injured by attacks of the Hessian fly; this is especially noticeable in localities also suffering from drouth. The crop will be considerably below the average, as a whole.

Corn has done fairly well except in a few localities where the drouth has affected it or cut worms have attacked it.

Tobacco setting has been the order of the day in all localities receiving enough rain to make "season" for the work. The plants are rather late and small in most places, but if the weather is favorable will come on all right. In those portions of the State not visited by good rains none has been set nor can be until rain comes.

The outlook for fruit continues to be good, although there is some complaint of apples dropping badly. Strawberries are ripe and plentiful in the markets. Potatoes and garden truck are in fair condition generally. Oats, clover and grass are not doing well, except in a few localities favored by rain. There is some complaint of damage to corn and tobacco by cut worms, but so far this is not serious. More rain is needed to ensure good crops.

Louisville, May 29th.
